East High's registrar is Miss Romig.

Mrs. Baranosky, our school nurse, is always available to be of service to East students.

Answering the telephone, checking attendance, running errands, and aiding the faculty are some of the tasks of the office staff. Pictured from left to right are: Mrs. Larsen (steno-clerk), Mrs. Merrill (secretary), Mrs. McClure (steno-clerk second semester), and Miss Tucker (attendance clerk).

Here at EHS for two years is Miss Smith, who teaches World History and sponsors the new People-to-People Club. She also was a director of our Nativity.

World and American History are taught by Mr. Thomas, who is in his third year at EHS.

In addition to being one of East's American History teachers, Mr. William Ackerman is also Key Club faculty adviser and assistant swimming coach.

Mr. Gulick is not only busy teaching American Problems and Economics, but also advising Student Court, assisting with Pep Club, and coaching Z Squad basketball. He is shown here supervising our Student Center.

Facing the Modern World

Understanding our modern world is of exceptional importance in every person's life. To aid in this understanding, East High requires three years of social science for each student. For the sophomores, study is continued from junior high with World History. Junior study is based on American History in preparation for the contemporary affairs studied in college. As for the seniors, study is concerned with American Problems and Economics on a local, national, and international basis. These courses are required because of a necessity to develop a clear knowledge for not only World History, but also for the democracy in which we live. We believe that "to know history is to know yourself."

An East High School faculty member for four years, Mr. Cowles is presently teaching World History to EHS sophomores.

Teaching American History is Mr. Holm, who has been at East High School for eight years.

Currently teaching American Problems and Economics here at East is Mr. Schakel. Mr. Schakel is pictured here with Paul Fagen.

This is Mr. Samuelson's second year teaching World History here at EHS. This year he has also taken the responsibility of acting as Student Council adviser.

A veteran of 26 years of teaching at East is Mr. Gewerth, who is chairman of the Social Studies Department. He teaches American Problems, Economics, and Commercial Geography. Shown here with Mr. Gewerth is Sharon Michael.

Teaching American History and American Problems for the ninth year at East is Mr. Tannatt. Mr. Tannatt also sponsors the Lettermen's Club.

Besides teaching World History for the last four years at East, Mr. Fleming is in charge of Audio-visual Aids and is co-ordinator for the Model U.N. activities.

Dividing his duties between teaching American History and counseling is Mr. Richard Akerman, pictured here with John Combs. Mr. Akerman is also assistant basketball coach.

At East for the ninth year is Mr. DeMouth, who teaches American History. He also coaches the girls' and boys' tennis teams and heads the operation of the concession stands for the P-TA.

Here for the thirteenth year is Mr. Neal, who teaches American Problems. He also expertly manages our athletic program.

A young new face around EHS this year is Mrs. White, who teaches both sophomore and junior English.

Creativity—A Main Objective

Clear expression of thought in writing and speaking is necessary for one to obtain success in our modern society. Our English classes help us to develop skills and ability through the study of grammar, composition, American Literature, and English Literature.

One of the main objectives of our English Department is creativity. To express our thoughts effectively is of primary importance, for we will soon be members of a democracy. Language is the most important tool in communicating. If we do not know how to use this tool effeciently, our future success will be limited. The way in which we use our language thus can make or destroy our public image.

With us for the first year is Mrs. Rieck. Besides teaching sophomore English, she also advises the new Creative Writing Club.

Mr. Oxenreider, in his eighth year, teaches junior and sophomore English. He is also the coach for track and cross country.

Miss Arnold teaches senior English and advises Travel Club. She is pictured with Craig Hamilton, who is explaining an English project to the class.

Teaching the new course, Humanities, is Mr. Griffin, who is at East for his first year.

Presenting some finer points of grammar to her senior English class is Miss Jones, who has been at EHS for the past five years.

Miss Whitford is shown helping Jerry Logsdon with scenery. She teaches speech, drama, and radio and sponsors the AFS Club and Drama Club.

Discussing another assignment with her class is Mrs. Schrage. This is her first year at East, where she teaches eleventh grade English.

Along with advising the Pep Club and German Club, Mr. Caltvedt, who is at EHS for his second year, teaches sophomore English and German.

Senior English is taught by Miss Langenfeld. She has been at East for five years.

Students Meet a Challenge with a New Perspective

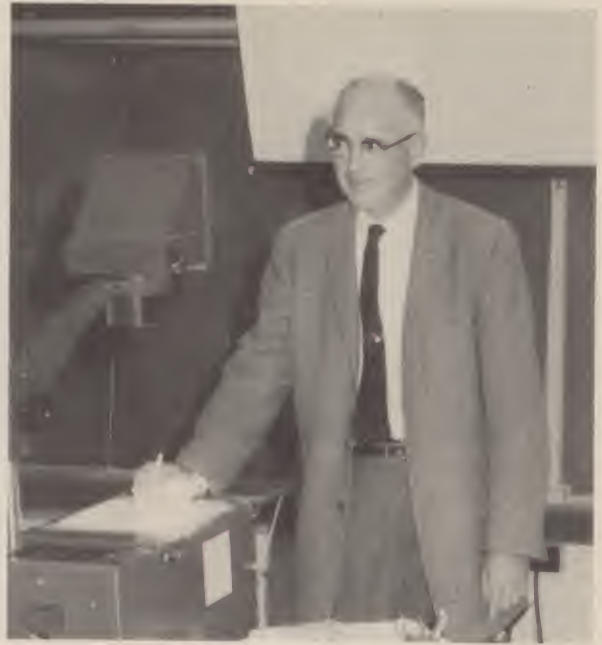

Geometry and second year algebra are being taught this year by Mrs. Kingsbury. This is her second year of teaching at East.

Mr. Simonsen is teaching algebra and geometry. This is his third year at East High School.

Mr. Huff, who is in his first year of teaching at East, teaches both geometry and algebra.

Very busy in the Math Department is Mr. Storer, who teaches advanced algebra, trigonometry, and probabilities and statistics. He has been teaching at East for eleven years and is sponsor of Computer Club.

With our booming Atomic Age today, math has become a vital subject. It has become more important in recent years to obtain a broader knowledge in this area. Courses of higher math offered at East are trigonometry, and probabilities and statistics. Also offered in the Math Department are both first and second year algebra, and geometry.

Mrs. Kingsbury helps Laureen Hall solve a geometry problem while the rest of the class attempt a solution.

Gain Knowledge of the Unknown Through Progress

Mr. Yount is explaining the various parts of the microscope to Vicki Ramirez. Besides teaching biology, he is a part-time counselor and heads the Science Department.

Cutting open worms and frogs is just a portion of the fun biology students have each year as they attempt to dissect some obscene (?) creatures. Biology is the study of living organisms of plants and animals.

In chemistry class, students learn how chemical changes occur, study elements and compounds, and conduct various experiments.

The most advanced science course at East is physics, which is a study about the physical effects of energy on matter.

Mr. Sloan is explaining the method of dissecting a frog to Craig Cochran and Larry Spain. In his eighth year of teaching at East, he has a full schedule teaching biology classes.

At East for eleven years is Mr. Johns, who teaches chemistry. He also is active in instructing a Saturday science class.

Performing one of the tasks of a science teacher, Mr. Peterson is shown helping Dennis Winegar with a project. He also conducts a Saturday science class.

A very busy man is Mr. Johnson, who not only teaches biology and boys' physical education, but also coaches sophomore basketball and assists in varsity football.

Actively coaching both wrestling and sophomore football, along with teaching biology, is Mr. Hand. He has been teaching at East for nine years.

Beginning his teaching career is Mr. Nicolet. He teaches fine arts and is also co-adviser of the Art Club.

Understanding the World of Art

Scenery for plays, publicity posters, and occasion cards sent out by the school are a few of the extra services performed by East High's Art Department.

At East, first-year art involves simple drawing and design. Second year is based on color theory and painting. Third year deals with advanced drawing, print making, sculpture, advanced painting, and commercial techniques.

Art is given only for those interested in wanting to develop their skills through the fine opportunities offered.

Miss Skarshaug heads the Art Department and co-sponsors the Art Club. She is shown helping Sharon Manual with a crafts project.

Students Create Beauty with Music

Our Music Department adds much to the spirit of East High. We are grateful to the band for displaying their fine talents at basketball and football games as well as our pep assemblies.

This year our choir gave performances at several junior high schools, the Nativity, and other school assemblies. The highlight of the choir's performances this year was Rodgers and Hammerstein's musical, "The King and I."

Mr. Mahaffey directs the Instrumental Music Department and acts as adviser for the Majorettes, Flag Twirlers, and Drill Team. He also was co-director of our school musical.

Heading the Vocal Music Department is Mrs. Lutz. Her vocal music classes include A Cappella Choir, Girls' Glee Club, and Boys' Glee Club. She was also the co-director of our school musical, "The King and I."

Miss Grabill, who has been with us for six years, is helping Terry Hardenbrook with a homemaking project.

Skills Prepare Us for the Future

Home management, family living, and cooking are taught by Mrs. Abramson, who is with us for her first year.

The general objective of our Homemaking Department is to develop creative ability and understanding in running an efficient home.

In cooking classes, girls learn basic steps in kitchen planning, management of time, nutrition, and proper preparation of foods.

Learning to use patterns and to work with different types of fabrics is the main task of the sewing classes.

Home management and family living classes emphasize areas of study in management of time, money, energy, personality improvement, preparation for marriage, marriage itself, and child care.

New Horizons in Language

Making a "dead" language come alive is Mrs. Erickson, who teaches Latin and sponsors Latin Club. She also is one of East's helpful counselors.

Latin and French are taught by Mr. Dolan, who has been at EHS six years. He also sponsors French Club and takes tickets at athletic events.

German and sophomore English are taught by Mr. Calvert, who is at East for his second year. He also sponsors German Club and assists with Pep Club.

Espanol is a popular foreign language at EHS. It is taught by Miss Gillespie, who also sponsors East's Spanish Club.

This year French, German, Latin, and Spanish are the language courses offered to EHS students. In each of these classes emphasis is placed on vocabulary building, grammatical structure, laboratory drills, and reading and writing the language.

Stenographic Orientation, Typing, and Shorthand are taught by Mr. Wanek, who has been teaching at East for seven years.

Seniors

In Retrospect:

Our dreaded homework and hours of study now seem all worthwhile as we feel a sense of accomplishment.

Our day-after-day routine of attending classes suddenly seems to "fit" in the total aim of learning.

The commonplace happenings of school life suddenly become something to be cherished.

Gradually and subconsciously we have reached a higher plateau of understanding. For some, it is the culmination of formal education. May the school years serve them well in their chosen careers. For those who continue to seek higher learning through formal education, E.H.S. has built a strong foundation upon which to base their future.

Although our days at East High can never be recaptured, we can never forget them as we look to the challenge of tomorrow in experience and knowledge.

Seniors Begin "Route 66"

Monday, August 30, arrived and we were ready to begin the last lap of a 13-year journey. Our destination—Graduation City. This last lap, Route '66, promised to be the most exciting of all the previous traveled, and that it was!

The first two-week period was a busy one. Filling out umpteen program cards, making lockers work, buying supplies, getting drivers' permits, and electing representatives for Student Council seemed to occupy our time. These necessary activities made the road a little rough at first, but from then on, we were ready to go, go, go!

Keeping up with the times, East acquired the James Bond look. With a flash of your S.A.T. card, you had passage into any East activity. This innovation was highly successful.

Where do all the seniors go? Where else but to the senior corner of the student center!

East Zooms to Victory

Bad weather and colds seemed to be some of our obstacles. Yes, the culprit was Studley Do-Bad, who tried his utmost to destroy the East High Spirit; but by the end of football season we had driven him to the D.T.'s (delirium tremens), because of the boundless spirit displayed. No wonder all had such pride, for the fighting Scarlet won the city championship with a 3-1-0 record. East also placed second in the Big Six Conference with a 3-1-0 record. Seniors honored on the All-State and Big Six teams were Dennis Leuthauser and Tom Sassatelli. All-City team honors went to John Jewett, Dennis Leuthauser, Robbie Reynolds, and Tom Sassatelli.

The year 1966 also marked the entrance of the "Mighty Scarlet," East's new mascot. This started a tradition that will continue to increase school pride in years to come. Senior Dale Baedke was East's first Mighty Scarlet.

Joline Peterson Reigns over Alumni Festivities

Sweetheart of Dear East High, Joline Peterson, was crowned 1965 Homecoming Queen at the annual Alumni Assembly. This was only the beginning of activities over which she has reigned. Such activities to follow were the Homecoming game, after-game party, and parade.

The school year 1965-66 was a memorable one for EHS seniors. One of the highlights was the use of a mascot for the first time in our history. Our mascot, the Mighty Scarlet, represented the school spirit of the students at pep assemblies and football and basketball games. He raised the school spirit by opening and closing the lid of the giant red Pep Bottle.

The Scarlet Steppers were part of the entertainment for the annual Alumni Assembly. For this performance they wore Indian headbands symbolizing the traditional theme of the Mighty Scarlets.

Other entertainment included "The Princemen." Their program of popular songs livened the atmosphere.

To conclude Homecoming 1965, over which Queen Joline Peterson and her court, Neta McBroom and Gerry David, reigned, East triumphantly defeated Fort Dodge 32-0.

Under the direction of Co-captain Shan Wood, the 1965-1966 Scarlet Steppers displayed their spirit at the annual Alumni Assembly by performing an Indian theme precision drill, making it complete by wearing Indian war paint and headbands.

The November Stretch

November 8 brought the election of our Senior Board. Under their guidance, our journey to Graduation City was one that will always be remembered. They have helped in presiding over our senior activities. One of their main accomplishments was the organization and promotion of our senior project, our new school plaque. Much thanks should go to them for their time and work in making this year successful.

One of the loveliest nights was the 12B formal, which was held November 20 at the Hotel Fort Des Moines. The theme was "Charades" and the decorations were beautiful with red and gold colors. Evening elegance was the scene as young ladies appeared in an array of beautiful gowns, while handsome gentlemen appeared in stylish tuxedos.

Mardi Gras Hits East

Another "One Wild Night" was February 19. A spell was cast on the unsuspecting male by East's beautiful young ladies. The lovely females sped their dates away to the exciting "Mardi Gras." Some of the features were the marriage booth, jail, fortune-telling booth, and refreshments. Prizes were given for the best corsages created. Cindy Garver and Jim McLain were chosen King and Queen to reign over the Spinsters' Spree. Their attendants were Pam Olds and Dean Townsend, juniors, and Kay Evans and Larry Krpan, sophomores. The Monarchs provided the music for the evening.

"Shamrock-A-Go-Go" was the theme of the senior breakfast held March 17. After the invocation, the Senior Board was introduced and then a skit, "My Poor Boy Is Dead," was given.

Activities

It was a very good year for setting one's goals, for deciding one's future, for making lasting friendships, and for carrying on the traditions of a school with a strong history of participation. East High has had a long tradition of organizations where students thought it was worthwhile to devote time to a common goal. We have followed these traditions and formed new ones.

Have we gained anything from our efforts? Have we gained anything from improving our school by electing a homeroom representative to Student Council? Have we gained anything by sitting in the audience being entertained by the drama department or reverently singing the Alma Mater? What do we gain from greeting alumni or helping a foreign student get acquainted with our school? Have we benefited from learning about other lands through foreign languages or from traveling to noted sights that have been talked about all year? Was the planning for the formal or the prom worth the effort? Have we gained anything from the constant headache of deadlines or the sore throat we got from being in the Pep Club?

The importance of these activities can only be fully realized in future years, as we look back on our days at East High and say that it was a very good year.

The 1965-66 Student Council has made many accomplishments to better our school. Most important to our student body this year was the acquiring of our mascot, "The Mighty Scarlet." Other new accomplishments made this year were the more convenient one-way stairs, the student directories, the merit awards given for recognition to anyone who made the honor roll at the end of each semester, and the student center bulletin board, installed for the purpose of announcing any activities interesting to the students. Some of the actions taken by the Student Council every year are those of the organization of the Student Court, arrangements for the homecoming parade, the decorating of the student center and sponsoring of after-game parties, the assistance with the signing up for youth employment, and the backing of the All-City Student Council. Each year the East High Student Council tries to make complete representation of our student body a main concern. We believe that the organization is most important in our school and we hope it will continue to uphold our traditional democratic system.

The spring Scroll staff, under the supervision of co-editors Sherri Reese and Keith Pickett, carried on the editing of the Scroll for the second semester. They've learned how to write features, how to prepare a layout and how to meet a deadline. The editor and co-editor of each of the eight pages now know the responsibility of writing his own article while also being responsible for the entire page he edits. Plenty of thought and hard work was put in by the staff, and they can now be proud of the tradition they upheld.

Traveling to junior high schools with entertaining concerts is but one of the varied activities of the band throughout the school year. During football season in the fall they are the marching band, performing with regular halftime entertainment. An added feature at many winter activities and at basketball games, they perform as the concert band. A main highlight of the year is the spring concert. In late spring they again become a marching band, winding up the year with the Drake Relays and Armed Forces Day parades.

They Sing Their Hearts Out

East is very proud of its fine Vocal Music Department under the direction of Mrs. Joyce Lutz. Our 71-voice choir performs at many in- and out-of-school events, their main ones being the annual Nativity, in which they play a main part, and the All-City Music Festival in the spring.

The Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs perform at various times throughout the year for the P.T.A. and in-school assemblies. Our all-state winners are an asset to the Music Department also. They devoted much of their out-of-school time to practicing for state competition.

"The King and I" — A Smashing Success!

Anna is portrayed by Sherri O'Neel.

The King is played by Sherman Rupe.

Rodgers and Hammerstein's "The King and I" was the first musical presented at East High in recent years. The main theme concerned a brave Englishwoman, Anna, who went to Siam to teach English to King Mongkut's sixty-seven children. This performance broke a tradition by replacing the annual Spotlight Parade. This first musical was successfully presented with two performances on March 25 and 26. Because of the endless efforts of the entire cast, the directors, orchestra, and all assisting committees, the musical was a magnificent success.

One of East High's traditions is the annual performance of the Nativity. The production of the Christmas story was under the supervision of Miss Smith, who was assisted by Mr. Griffin. All members of the cast strived to present an authentic character portrayal which proved to be successful.

The shepherds look in awe and fright as Gabriel and the angel choir appear.

Mary and Joseph reverently gaze at the Baby Jesus.

ONE WILD NIGHT—a Zany Comedy

Overtaken by a sleeping drug, Scorpio, played by Craig Hamilton, is discovered by Rodney, Steve Taylor, and the bewildered police officer, Denny Leuthauser.

As the maid views the drugged sleepers, she decides she has never worked in such a house.

MISS THELMA WHITFORD

One Wild Night, by Guernsey Le Pelley, was a delight to all that viewed the fall play, under the direction of Miss Thelma Whitford.

The comedy concerned a misguided hypochondriac who tries to please his wealthy invalid aunt by catering to her every whim. Utter confusion results when a series of events tend to threaten his chance of inheriting his aunt's fortune.

Many hours were spent rehearsing for the final performance. The play proved to be a success because of the participation and effort of many students necessary for a memorable production such as One Wild Night.

Meet Helena-Our AFS Student

"I love it. It's wonderful. Everyone says 'hello' to me and helps me with any of my questions." This is the impression East High gave to seventeen-year-old Helena Correa, who is staying with the H. R. Burgetts during her senior year.

Helena came from Caracas, Venezuela, through the American Field Service program.

Helena is a member of the Art Club, Spanish Club, A.F.S. Club, and Pep Club. She has also been on the honor roll and has been named as honorary member of the All-City Student Council.

After graduating from East High, Helena and other foreign students throughout the country will take a three-week tour of the United States, including a visit with President Johnson.

After the tour, Helena will rejoin her father, mother, two sisters, and a brother in Caracas. She then will enter Central University of Venezuela, where she will major in architecture and eventually begin a career of interior design and painting. One of Helena's dreams is to one day further her art studies in America.

Proceeds from Gentleman's Day, movies, the Key Club-versus faculty basketball game, and other activities are used to purchase something worthwhile for the school. Members also volunteer time and support to non-profit organizations such as Red Cross or Salvation Army. The club meets every Wednesday morning and is directed by Mr. William Ackerman.

Visiting the Tifereth Israel Synagogue (which was displaying a collection of Israeli art) and the Drake University Art Center are among the activities of the Art Club. An assistant art professor from Drake and the director of art education from the Des Moines Art Center were also invited to speak to the group during the year.

The club, which meets only for events of interest, is sponsored by Mr. Nicolet and Miss Skarshaug.

Three of many new clubs organized at East this year were the Debate Club, Creative Writing Club, and the Computer Club.

In its first year, the Debate Club is trying to lay a foundation for eventual interschool competition. Giving students experience in the processes of formal argumentation and analytical thinking is the purpose of the club. Regular meetings of the Debate Club, which is directed by Mr. Fleming and Mr. Holm, are held the third Monday of every month.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Reick, the Creative Writing Club meets the second Monday of every month. The purpose of the club is to encourage those who like to express themselves creatively in prose and poetry.

Learning how to operate a computer is the purpose of the Computer Club, which is directed by Mr. Storer. Most of the meetings of Computer Club are held at Dial Finance Company where members learn to operate computers.

People and Places Are Interests of These Clubs

Making its debut at East this year is the People-to-People Club, which is sponsored by Miss Smith. The People-to-People Club is an international organization dedicated to promoting better relations between nations on a citizen-to-citizen basis rather than through governmental means.

The club, which meets the fourth Monday of every month, exchanges pen pals and attends events in the community associated with international affairs. The club also has an exchange school, Cholwon High School, in Kang Won Providence, Japan.

The Travel Club is designed for those with a fancy for learning about other people and other places. Under the sponsorship of Miss Arnold, the club meets the second Tuesday of each month.

The highlight of the year for the Travel Club is the spring trip. This year they visited Kansas City.

Teachers who have spent summers in foreign countries are often invited to speak and show slides, films, or pictures. The East High exchange student is also invited to speak at one of the meetings.

A large but growing club at East is the Drama Club. Future aims for the club are to join the National Thespian Society, which means that the membership would be on a three-year basis. Another benefit obtained from a national affiliation is that a more consistent standard of awarding drama points will be acquired.

The club meets the fourth Tuesday of every month and is directed by Miss Whitford. Climax of the year for Drama Club is a social affair at which points are awarded for activities and new members are initiated.

Those who have an interest in the game of chess, or wish to learn how to play, have found many hours of enjoyment and instruction in the Chess Club of East High.

Meetings of the Chess Club were held every Wednesday afternoon in room 206 and were directed by Mr. Meier.

Each spring for the past two years the members of the club have been hosts to the members of chess clubs of other schools in the city in a tournament held in the East High library.

Tomorrow's Teachers

This year the Health Careers Club entered into many interesting activities. They prepared Christmas gifts and sent them to the state hospital in Woodward, visited the center for the blind, and attended a tea at Mercy Hospital. Through these activities, EHS students have taken a look into varied medical professions.

Through the Future Teachers' Club, East students learn more about the field they have chosen as their future career. In their group discussions they enlarge upon such topics as academic training required in order to enter the teaching profession. The club is sponsored by Miss Soutter.

Checking materials in and out of the library, preparing those familiar reminders of overdue books, and shelving books are only a few of the duties of East's library staff. It is composed of students selected by Mrs. Schmeiser, our librarian.

First-Hand Experience Aids Practical Knowledge

The "tag line" of East's DECA Club is "Developing Future Leaders for Marketing and Distribution." One of the ways they achieve this goal is by participating in two of fourteen different contests, which include such areas as public speaking, sales demonstrations, display judging, and advertising and layout displays. Members attend the Delegates' Assembly, State Leadership Conference, and the National DECA Convention.

The East High salesmanship classes, taught by Mr. Devin and Mrs. Murdock, have sold all of the ads for our Quill yearbook. The salesmanship students canvass the entire East Side and try to give every business establishment an opportunity to place an ad in the Quill. Because of these students' great efforts, the price of our new hardback-covered Quill is offered to the students at a much lower rate than it would otherwise be. The $75 Club is made up of top Quill ad salesmen.

Sports

Any East High sport exhibits a fine example of citizenship, co-operation, and public relations that endures throughout the victories or the defeats.

It is hard for anyone to describe the abstract feelings he gets from any East High sport, for sports are a part of East High, just as is studying for a test or attending a club meeting.

Who can measure attitudes or loyalties? How can one put into words the pride in our sports stadium, where spirit reigns in winning or losing, or the triumph we felt when our football team won the city title? Could we ever describe how we were on the edge of our seats hoping for that needed basket with only seconds to spare, or the way we cheered when the batter hit that decisive homerun? How could we help being proud of our new Scarlet Mascot or the exploding spirit escaping from our pep bottle?

Sports have always brought out the best in East High—determination, effort, pride, initiative, and that indestructible East High spirit.

Eventually we will become a part of the mass who continually return as devout alumni, for the scene of character that sports bring remains with us long after our days as East High students.

Gridders Compile 6-2 Record, Place First in City

With a margin of only eight points preventing a 6-2 record from being an undefeated season, the East High football squad earned first place in the City Series and second in the Big Six Conference. The only losses on the grid record were a 7-0 upset to Lincoln, and a one-point loss to highly-ranked Mason City.

Highlight of the year was a shut-out victory over Roosevelt. It was the first victory over Roosevelt in five years, and the first time that the game has been played on our home field.

Players receiving All-State honors were Dennis Leuthauser, first team, and Tom Sassatelli, second team. Both of them were also named to the first team, All-Big Six.

John Jewett, Jock Johnson, John Kelly, Dennis Leuthauser, Robbie Reynolds and Tom Sassatelli were named to the All-City squad.

As one can see, East High has had another successful year in football.

Recreation Creates a Way of Relaxation for Girls

The GRA officers for the year of 65-66 are Chris Webb, Connie Webb, and Carol Gay; Not Pictured: Shan Wood.

The purpose of the Girls' Recreation Association is to give the girls at East a chance to participate in sports activities of their choice. They achieve this by entering into activities such as bowling, basketball, volleyball, and softball. The girls participating in these activities earn a specific number of points toward a numeral or a letter.

All activities take place after school. Meetings are held once a month and attendance of all members is required.

The officers for the year of 65-66 are Shan Wood, president; Chris Webb, vice-president; Connie Webb, secretary; and Carol Gay, treasurer. Mrs. Knott is the sponsor of the club.

TOP BOWLERS: Pam Moore, Terry Monteith, Toni Monteith, Janice Piper.

5 Lettermen Returning

Recoiling from a 2-8 season, the East High Wrestlers made a good showing in tournament competition. The team finished second in the sectional tournament and third in the district.

In the city meet, which was held at East, Tony Wilson and Bob Volpe placed first.

The sectional meet, which included East, Lincoln, Tech, and Southeast Polk, was also held at East. Tony Wilson and Tom Sassatelli were champions and John Jewett, Bob Volpe, and Byron Dudley placed second.

These wrestlers then advanced to the district meet held at Southeast Polk. John Jewett and Bob Volpe earned a trip to the state meet in Waterloo by placing second. Both were defeated in the first round of competition, but John's opponent went on to place third and Bob's opponent placed first.

The team hopes to have a better season next year and will be led by five returning lettermen.

Meeting with each of the City and Big Six high school baseball squads, the EHS baseball team must practice diligently to keep up with its tough competition. MR. SANDQUIST
Coach

The boys' golf team, coached by Mr. Sandquist, consisted of two returning lettermen, Bob Johnson (captain) and Dave Anderson. Thirty boys worked out for the spring season, which lasted from April 13 to the end of the city and state meets on May 21.

Although most of the boys were new and lacked experience compared with the team last year, the team exhibited skill and exceptional sportsmanship.

Mr. Sandquist also coached the girls' golf team. Carolyn Stady, Donna Harlow, Shan Wood, and Marilyn Magdefrau were returning letter winners. Twelve girls were out for the team this year.

Mr. Sandquist believed the team could be compared to that of last year when they qualified for the state tournament.

Five returning lettermen led the boys' team while the girls' team was primarily made up of newcomers.

All the exhaustion and fatigue were forgotten as the victories were won and the defeats were taken in good spirit. Mr. Oxenreider was assisted by Mr. Devin in coaching the team during a fine season.

They Make Our Games Possible

Two essential parts of the efficiency of our athletic activities are Mr. Neal and Mr. Bagdonas. Mr. Neal is in charge of scheduling all athletic meets for the entire year and transporting the boys to out-of-town games. Mr. Bagdonas is another asset to the sports department, and is in charge of all sports equipment.

Strength and Spirit Characterize EHS Trackmen

Under the supervision of Coach Oxenreider and assistant coaches, Mr. Devin and Mr. Weberg, the EHS track team displays the results of its many hours of hard work at the track meets. Many people think that being a member of the track team does not require much of anything except enough speed to win. This is true, but what these people do not realize is the long practices which condition the members to run fast and cover long distances. East High track teams have earned many honors and we are proud of their efforts and achievements.

Best Swimming Season in EHS History; 9-4 Record

The East High swimming team ended its best season in the history of EHS with a compiled record of 9-4. The team also brought home second place in the City Series and second in the City Meet. Its success this year was partly due to great individual efforts. Records were set by two juniors, Jim Embree and Don Brady. Others who played heavy parts in the team's achievements were Dennis Kelce, Gary Nichols, Brian Sandell, Kim Garbett, Scott O'Mara, and Bill Johnson. All in all, it turned out to be a very good year.

They Promote School Loyalty and Sportsmanship

The East High Lettermen's Club, which is composed of lettermen from all sports, is organized to build leaders for our school as well as our community. The club promotes school loyalty and sportsmanship as well as service in any way possible. The adviser of the club is Mr. Tannatt.

In March some of the more advanced swimmers were sent to the annual AAU Competition.

GERRY DAVID
Co-Captain

Our Scarlet Steppers perform during the half-times of basketball and football games. The co-captains spend much of their time working with Mr. Mahaffey, the Stepper's adviser, and planning the drills. Perfection of the drills is their first concern; then they are confronted with the task of teaching drills to the group. The Steppers also march in various assemblies throughout the year.

SHAN WOOD
Co-Captain

After a grueling week of practice, climaxed by their Friday night performance at the East-Roosevelt basketball game, the Scarlet Steppers "let loose" and relax in the girls' gym.

It was the young man's first visit to the home of his adored one, and he seemed to be making a very good impression.

"Have you any objections to a whiskey and soda?" asked his prospective father-in-law.

"Well," replied the young man, "I never had one before."

The father stared. "What, never had a whiskey and soda?"

"No sir; never had an objection."

Linda Robertson: "Here you see the skull of a chimpanzee, a very rare specimen. There are only two in the country—one is in the national museum and I have the other."

The country is really in bad shape when you think that 140,000,000 people wake up every morning with halitosis, B. O., and athlete's foot.

Love is like an onion; you taste it with delight. But when you're through, you wonder whatever made you bite.

Cannibal with indigestion: "You can't keep a good man down."

Mrs. Neal: "I think I hear burglars. Are you awake?"

Mr. Neal: "NO!"

"They say people with opposite characteristics make the happiest marriages."

"Yes, that's why I'm looking for a girl that's just like me."

Mr. Schakel, annoyed by his clock-watching students, covered the face of the clock with this sign: "Time will pass—will you?"

Doctor: "How's Bob Volpe doing this morning?"

Nurse: "I think he's regaining consciousness. He tried to blow the foam off his medicine."

Where does education end?

Everybody knows
where education begins.

It begins with that first hungry search for nourishment, and it goes on through that first word and that first step and that first painful punch in the nose.

It grows taller
as it grows familiar with letters and numbers and names of things
and names of places, and answers increasingly more who's and what's and where's and why's and how's.

Everybody knows
where education begins, but nobody knows where education ends —
especially yours, except you.

And where your education ends depends mostly on you and how well you want to be able to answer questions like these — plus one more question, too, asked ever so frequently — “What can you do for me?”

Marie H.: "Why did she give you such a dirty look?"

Ed R.: "Who?"

Marie H.: "Mother Nature, of course."

You'll continue to enjoy dining at McDonald's where you can expect the best eating at the lowest prices.

McDonald's hamburgers are 100% pure beef — never frozen meat. Choice quality beef is fresh ground daily and served hot off the grill on toasted buns — the way you like best! Tasty French fries are crisp, golden brown and piping hot. Smooth, cool triple-thick shakes come in your choice of strawberry, chocolate or vanilla. You can be sure everything you order at McDonald's has had the careful preparation good food deserves.

I rose and gave her my seat—

She made me think of Mother,
With that strap held in her hand.

You can tell a freshman
By his silly, eager look.
You can tell a sophomore
'Cause he carries one less book.
You can tell a junior
By his dashing air and such.
You can tell a senior
But, boy, you can't tell him much.

Like pencils,

Drake students are not all alike. Some come from big cities, others from small towns. Some are from the East Coast, others from California. Some are from as near as Des Moines, others from as far away as Hong Kong. Some are rich, others of relatively modest means. Some want to become teachers, others lawyers, still others businessmen. Some are Republicans, others are Democrats. Drake students differ in many respects, but they share a common bond: the desire for an education. They are preparing themselves for careers while gaining insight into the problems confronting today's world. We would be pleased to answer your questions about our study programs.

Each year YOUNKERS offers a program for teenagers from the Des Moines area high schools . . . TEEN BOARD for junior and senior girls, and BOYS ADVISORY BOARD for senior boys. The young people selected to represent their respective schools are chosen for their leadership qualities, high scholastic standing, personal recommendations from the school advisors, and fellow members of TEEN BOARD, plus their interest and ability in retail and fashion. They participate in several special fashion shows during the year, give talks in their schools and to other groups on good grooming, publish a monthly newsletter, and work in various departments each Saturday. YOUNKERS salutes the representatives from East High School for a job well done.
